As per the provision contained in Para 5.1 (2) of the said Government Resolution, the Special Capital Incentive (SCI) become due for the disbursement to the eligible unit in equal annual instalments over five years from the date of effect of the Eligibility Certificate. The Government has been considering representations from Agro based industry which had demanded to disburse SCI in one instalment instead of five equal annual instalments.

Example : An Eligible Unit excluding Agro Processing Units, Export Oriented Units, Poultry Units, Dairy Units and units in Gadchiroli and Hingoli Districts and located in a classified area declared by Government from time to time, is granted Eligibility Certificate with effect from 1st January, 2002. If its eligible fixed capital investment is Rs.100/-, the amount of SCI will be Rs.20/-. The Eligible Unit will be entitled for disbursement of SCI of Rs.4/- on 1st January, 2003 and every year upto 1st January, 2007. If Government release funds for disbursement of SCI in October, 2005, the Eligible Unit will be disbursed Rs.12/- from the allocated funds, in accordance with the chronological order of the claims approved for the Eligible Unit.

The SCI will become due for disbursement to eligible Agro Processing Units, Export Oriented Units, Poultry Units, Dairy Units and Units in Gadchiroli and Hingoli Districts in one instalment from the date of effect of the Eligibility Certificate.
